Abstract:

The LP collection at the Bronzeville Historical Society was donated to the foundation by Viessa Perry. Ms. Perry was a member of the Black Panther Party. She worked for the United States Postal Service for 25 years. She is currently a board member for the Bronzeville Historical Society.

The collection includes various types of music pertaining to black culture in the United States -- with one specific section addressing Chicago artists. The LPs are organized in a container list by genre and alphabetically by author's name. The LPs are currently being shelved at the Bronzeville Historical Society but are not currently boxed. In total the collection includes 270 records.
